Perhaps during Religion Class, the story of Archbishop Oscar Romero's life (see attachments) could be read aloud. Please have your students reflect on Romero's life by writing a petition through his intercession:

Archbishop Romero, I would like to pray for...

Those who are tempted to join a gang;
for the health of the Pope; for Haiti and also for Tsunami relief; for justice to be served equally and fairly and for the peace of the world.

Tsunami relief; for justice to be served equally for the peace of the world.

Julian Hernandez
Archbishop of Oscar Romero

I admire his work for freedom because what he done was the right thing & her murdered him was wrong we should get justice for him. He was doing the right thing speaking for people with no power. the people with power didn't want to speak

I would like to pray for Archbishop Romero for doing all the wonderful things he done for people & everything or anything he was a very good man god bless him I hope he's in heaven

Archbishop Romero help the poor.
He was helping the farmers. They shoot him ~~by~~ just for helping the poor and the farmers. He died on March 24 1980. He gave hope.

Archbishop Romero I would like to pray for ~~my~~ my ~~mom~~ ~~for~~ ~~her~~ because she is going to get surgery.

Archbishop Romero help the poor people. He help them get their rights. People thought that he would never do a thing like that. Because he was rich, but even though he was rich he to help the poor.

Archbishop Romero, I would like to pray for my family and friends.

3/11/05

Archbishop constitution was to help the poor in El Salvador. He didn't like soldiers. If you were poor you either stand for what you believe and get shot or you going the military. He gave leader-ship and gave hope to people.

Archbishop Romero he would like to pray for the poor all over our world. Please let them be safe and let them shelter and food. But also let them have courage to find a job. for they could get there careers going.

Warmup.

What Archbishop Romero did was help the poor. He was against the military because of the horrible things they're doing. He stood up to help the poor by giving them speeches that will make them stronger. He knew he were to die for the Salvadorians ~~because~~ if he wanted to help them out, but he died and he did it for his people.

Archbishop I would like to pray for the poor, hope they find shelter and food to eat also may God's angels help them through the tough times.

Romero was a man who tried to stop the military from El Salvador. He didn't want people to die because of the soldiers. He put his life in danger because of what he told the military. One of Romero's friends died and so did a seven year old boy and an old man because of the military. Romero got shot by the soldiers. He died in march 12, on the 1980's Archbishop Romero, I would like to pray for the people who died during your days. Also for the poor people.

Archbishop Romero's contribution was to the poor in El Salvador. He tried to stop the military from killing the poor and the priest. Before all of this happen he was with the rich, but he switched sides because he realized that the church isn't only made up the archbishops but of the people.

Archbishop Romero, I would like to pray for my family and my grandma. Also for my uncle who is in jail, please take care of him and keep him away from harm.

Steven.

3/11/05

Archbishop Romero's contribution in Salvador are that he stood up for the poor. The poor never expected the bishop to take their side. Romero is also famous for his speech he made to the soldiers. Later he was shot and died, but told the reporters that whoever shoots him they are just wasting their time and forgives them.

Archbishop Romero; I would like to pray for the poor in which you fought for.

Laura Solís
